GENERAL INFORMATION:

Part of our employment process will involve a background investigation. The background investigation will include a criminal investigation and may include the procurement of your fingerprints. (In the event fingerprints are procured, they will be processed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.) This process is designed to notify the Company of any criminal record you may have.

It is critical that the questions listed below be completed fully and accurately. Please note that a conviction or pretrial diversion or similar program does not automatically disqualify you from employment. It is our preference to discuss any potential concerns prior to employment. If you are employed by the Company, and there is a discrepancy between law enforcement records and any of your responses to the questions below, you may be terminated at any time during your employment.

Have you ever been refused bonding coverage or had bonding coverage canceled? Yes No

If yes, please explain: _____

Have you ever been convicted of any criminal offense (including misdemeanor or felony or any other categories or types of offenses) or agreed to enter into a pretrial diversion or similar program, including deferred adjudication, in connection with prosecution for such an offense? Yes No

If yes, please explain: _____

CERTIFICATION AND ASSENT:

I hereby certify that the statements I have made are true, and, if I am subsequently employed by the Company, that I may be subject to discharge if they are found to be false. I have provided the information above voluntarily and without coercion. I also understand that employment and continued employment is conditional upon the Company securing and retaining an acceptable fidelity bond on me.

I understand that the Company is required to make an inquiry regarding criminal records which may include procuring my fingerprints, at the Company's expense, and I agree to have my fingerprints submitted to the Federal Bureau of Investigation and other law enforcement officials and agencies nationwide for a criminal records investigation. The Company reserves the right to perform a criminal background investigation, which may include the submission or resubmission of fingerprints, on current employees, at any time. Employment and continued employment is contingent upon a satisfactory investigation.

I release the Company, its predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, past and present officers, directors, agents, servants, employees, and assigns from any and all claims relating to the criminal background investigation and/or my submission to being fingerprinted and relating to any consequences from the fingerprinting program.

This employer will provide the Social Security Administration (SSA) and, if necessary, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), with information from each new employee's Form I-9 to confirm work authorization.

IMPORTANT: If the Government cannot confirm that you are authorized to work, this employer is required to give you written instructions and an opportunity to contact DHS and/or the SSA before taking adverse action against you, including terminating your employment.

Employers may not use E-Verify to pre-screen job applicants and may not limit or influence the choice of documents you present for use on the Form I-9.

To determine whether Form I-9 documentation is valid, this employer uses E-Verify's photo matching tool to match the photograph appearing on some permanent resident cards, employment authorization cards, and U.S. passports with the official U.S. government photograph. E-Verify also checks data from driver's licenses and identification cards issued by some states.

If you believe that your employer has violated its responsibilities under this program or has discriminated against you during the employment eligibility verification process based upon your national origin or citizenship status, please call the Office of Special Counsel at 800-255-7688, 800-237-2515 (TDD) or at www.justice.gov/crt/osc.
